

Dayton Region AWHONN, PNMA, & PCEO's
Spring Evening Event
Tuesday, May 7, 2024
5:30-8:30 pm at the Kettering College Auditorium
On Kettering Health Main Campus

Care of the Perinatal Patient on Medication for Opioid Use Disorder (MOUD)

Schedule: 5:30–6:00 pm: Registration, networking, and dinner
6:00–7:00 pm: Program opening
7:00–7:15 pm: Break (desserts)
7:15–8:00 pm: Program completion
8:00–8:15 pm: Closing (Door Prizes at 8:15pm☺)

Speakers: Corey Davis, BSN, RN, and Cambria King, CRS

Objectives:

Identify treatment options for opiate use disorder (OUD) in the perinatal period.
Summarize the effects of medication for opioid use on the mother-baby dyad throughout the perinatal period.
Recognize principles of harm reduction and ways to incorporate them into clinical practice.
Describe ways to interact with patients and their support persons in a way that is non-stigmatizing and empowering of their recovery.

Nursing Contact Hours: have been applied for

Location: Kettering College Auditorium on the Kettering Health Main Campus
3737 Southern Boulevard Kettering, Ohio 45429

Program Fees: AWHONN/PCEO Members and students: $20 Non-Members: $30
Fee includes registration, dinner, and contact hours. PCEO has graciously agreed to subsidize this event to support the nursing profession and their dedication to this important topic.

Registration: NO Walk-ins will be permitted. Substitutions allowed. No refunds.
Please use the form below and include payment with registration or online @ <https://pceoregion2.org/> by April 30th, 2024.
Make checks payable to: PCEO Mail to: Newborn Medicine Office/PCEO One Children's Plaza Dayton, OH 45404-1815

AWHONN/PCEO Dayton Region May 7, 2024, Spring Evening Event
Registration Form and Payment postmarked by April 28. Due to catering issues, we are unable to accept late registrations.

Name _____

AWHONN Membership # or Employer (PCEO member hospitals get the $20 rate): _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Daytime Phone: _____ Email _____

AWHONN/PCEO Member & student $20.00 _____ Non-member $30.00 _____